Breeder's Quality

GOLDEN COB®

Knows birds best.

Since 1895, we have been producing the GOLDEN COB® Breeder's Quality range of seed mixes, to provide Australian birds with the nutrition they need for health & vitality.

A diet of seeds alone is typically low in essential nutrients, but GOLDEN COB® seeds are coated with our unique vitamin & mineral enriched oil, to provide:

- ✓ Vitamin A – important for healthy immune system & good eyesight.
- ✓ Vitamin D3 – to assist calcium absorption.
- ✓ Vitamin E – for reproductive health & increased fertility.
- ✓ Iodine – for healthy thyroid function.

Developed by reputable breeders & avian experts, the GOLDEN COB® Breeder's Quality range includes specially formulated products in 5kg & 20kg packs.

Words from the editor.

Hi All,

I would like to start by saying thank you for the opportunity to create the publication that represents you all and the BSNSW INC. I will endeavour to do my best for every issue of this magazine.

I would like to encourage everybody to send me all of your show results, information, articles and anything they would like to see in the magazines to bsnsweditor@gmail.com

I truly look forward to producing the best magazine you all would love to read.
Any feedback or critique is greatly appreciated.

Thank you and Enjoy
Justin Magnee

Words from Our president.

Welcome to my first report as President of BSNSW after being elected in February at the Special General meeting.

Thank you to Steve Cummins for his leadership over the past 3 years but has relinquished this position & that of Show Manager due to personal reasons. We should also thank Ann Hand for her hard work as General Secretary who stood down from this position due to family reasons. I wish both of you well.

At the Special General Meeting in February we had members nominate for the positions left vacant and I thank Mark Finnimore General Secretary, James Baker Show Manager & Aaron Beman Minutes Secretary for accepting these positions.

The Editor of our magazine Anna Shaw also relinquished her position in February and I thank her for work in this role. At the March Management meeting Justin Magnee was elected to the position of Editor & I welcome him to the management team. Please support Justin in his efforts to keep the fancy in touch & up to date with events & articles.

The show season is well & truly underway with large numbers of birds have been exhibited & congratulations to all successful exhibitors. There have been lovely birds on the bench and the young birds shown will place us in good stead to have a solid team at the ANBC Championships in Brisbane in May. If you intend to attend these Championships get your registrations in. SQBBA has great events planned for the period.

Our next major event is the State Team challenge & State selection on 18th May which needs your support so get your Branch or Associate Club to enter a team no matter whether your team will be complete or not as the more birds we can pick the State team from the better it will be.

The BSNSW Annual Show postponed in January will now be held at the same venue on the 30th June so please support this as much work has been put in to make it successful.

I look forward to meeting & talking to all at various events.

Thank You
Steve Wackwitz

Words from our Secretary.

It has been my pleasure to take on the role of secretary at the recent AGM. I look forward to working with the committee, branches and associated clubs.

In order to ensure that all branches and associated clubs receive all correspondence I ask that every secretary from each please contact me with an updated list of the clubs details. I thank those branches and associated clubs who have already provided this information.

In order to ensure the website and facebook page is up to date with all your events and show results I ask that all notification come through to me so I can direct it to our web-master.

Thank You
Mark Finnimore
BSNSW General Secretary

The Kathy Manton Story

20-20 interview with Mark Hawke

I've known Kathy for many years and the few things sticks in my mine, her wonderful nature as a person always greeting you with her beautiful smile and her warm personality and her dedication to the hobby of exhibition budgerigars. Kathy has worked tirelessly in all facets of the hobby be that as a judge, showing on the bench or on a committee for her club (Hills Branch) or for her state (BSNSW) and the (Colours & Standards) .It's a thankless job at times but I'd like to thank her personally having had the pleasure to work along side her while as a steward or the BSNSW committee, one other thing is just like her other love of horses, if she falls off she always gets back on and never gives up know matter how tuff it gets. I will always count Kathy as a friend and I take my hat off to her, Congratulations on a job well done. PS. The same goes to your soulmate Ian outstanding commitment, devotion and work ethic. 3 Cheers and look forward to catching up at the STCC and Nationals in Brisbane.

Question 1.

What started your interest in budgerigars?

About 40 years ago a very good friend of mine asked Ian and I to look after her pet budgie whilst she was on holidays. Bluey the budgie was a great talker and very, very tame. I was so taken by him that I wanted a budgie of my own. Ian bought me a Lutino for Christmas, then an aviary followed, then breeding cages, and 40 years later....here we are today.

Question 2.

How long have you been in the hobby?

About 40 years, although we've only been BSA / BSNSW members for about 35 or so years.

Question 3.

What Club & level do you show

Hills Branch, Open

Question 4.

What varieties do you keep?

Normals, Cinnamonwings, Opalines, Spangles, Clearwings and a few Yellowfaced Blues.

Question 5.

What is your best memory in the hobby?

This is such a hard question to answer! I have several great memories:

The Society Annual shows held at the old Sydney Showgrounds, the St George shows held at Rose Bay, and in particular Ashley Thompson's Yellowfaced Blues. Having our first bird (a Normal Grey green) go to the Nationals, our first Grand Champion, being made a Life Member in 2009, and I fondly remember the some 16 years I spent on the Colour & Standards Committee, with Bob Bourke, Ron Hunt, Bob Gorman and Jennifer Bell (and in later years John Carter). We were a great team

Continued...

Question 6.

Who's birdroom would you like to spend a day in having a one to one

I'd reckon that would be Henry George's birdroom. On the proviso that I could have a good snoop around his

Question 7.

Who's bloodlines have influenced your stud?

Ian and I have not brought in many outcrosses over the years, so it's hard to accredit any particular bloodline. We did breed some nice birds from a couple of Welshman birds, but probably not enough to significantly influence our overall stud.

Question 8.

Name your 3 top budgerigar breeders in Australia in any or-

3 great names that come to mind: John Scoble, Ray Welshman and Mark Chidel.

Question 9.

What was your best ever bird and for what reason?

We bred a freak of a bird for its time, a Spangle Double Factor in the 1980s. This was back in the days when there were no classes for Double Factors, they had to be shown as Non Standards. It was unbeaten on the show bench, but sadly being a non-standard, could never come up for a Major Award.

Question 10.

What car or motorcycle do you

I drive a manual Mitsubishi Triton diesel dual cab ute. Such a versatile vehicle – great for carrying budgies, horse gear, people, picking up feed, towing a horse float, etc, etc.

Question 11.

Name the person you would most like to have dinner with?

Not one person – all my nearest and dearest mates, with lots of grog too!

Question 12.

If you could only show at one show, which would it be?

Does the State Team Challenge show count? If not, the BSNSW Annual.

Question 13.

What would you do if you won the Lottery?

Ah...more land...more horses!

Question 14.

Is there anything in budgies that really irritates you?

Being involved in exhibition budgies, means being involved in a volunteer organisation, and an organisation that needs people to make things happen. It peeves me off that some people just never volunteer to do anything at all, and expect others to do all the work. There is no excuse whatsoever for not making some sort of a contribution, no matter how big or small.

Another thing that annoys me is when people show their budgies in really filthy, dirty cages. Seriously? If they don't give a toss about cleaning their cages, why should I care about judging their bird?

Question 15.

I love our three horses, Digger – an aged stock horse, Danny – an ex-Pacer standardbred, and Kingy who I've had for two years now, an awesome-moving Chestnut thoroughbred with 3 white socks. Kingy and I compete in low level dressage and hack shows.

My other hobby is woodworking. I have all the power tools that any girlie could ever wish for, and really enjoy making things like chairs and tables, horse cavalettis, wooden baskets, etc

My wish list for Christmas was a new pair of horse riding boots, and a new Stanley 1 inch wood chisel!

Question 16.

What is your favourite movie & actor?

Geepers, hard to pick - maybe I'm a bit eclectic...Silence of the Lambs, Black Beauty and any of the James Bond movies. And actors, well Martin Shaw who plays Judge John Deed is pretty easy on the eye!

Question 17.

What is your favourite food & restaurant?

The Chinese food at downtown Riverstone RSL is hard to beat.

Question 18.

What football team do you follow if any?

Next question... I hate footy!

Question 19.

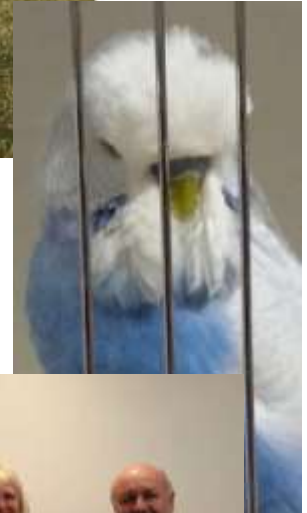

Are you in a relationship?

Ian and I have clocked up 36 years of marriage and we lived together for a few years before that.

Question 20.

OCCUPATION...?

I am a bookkeeper, specializing in legal accounting.

Steve Was speaking about how important the magazine is to the society,

Nola is happy for her information to be used in the magazine. We also must send the Magazine to the other states.

Jim has an updated copy of all the show results for that magazine.

Procedure to handle the calendar of events and results of shows etc. on the website

Received email from webmaster, he is not 100% certain if the emails are spam or genuine as there is a large number of unknown emails. It was suggested that only one person to send information from each club (and a list can be provided to Webmaster).

Dan mentioned that it's not fair that the Secretary is overworked in sending, and that we should delegate to another member to ease this issue.

Jean suggested that office bearers should send their own information and external goes through the Secretary

Side note –

Was bought up that others should have access to the website to make it easier. Needs approval

Andre handed information to the webmaster and took some time to update.

Small mistakes in the website, need to run in date order in that "what's on" page

Mark has asked people to pass on any errors or correspondence can be sent to him to monitor the website and get them corrected.

Leg Ring Issue to Associated Clubs

Attached is the 3 Correspondences' regarding the issue

Myles- The issue we have is the rights between the Associates and Members, it is very inconsistent in the way people are treated, we need to bring everyone together.

We are giving non-members the same rights as members, and it's not fair to paying members, An issue at a show that rings were issued to non-members and shown in the show.

Not changing any Bylaws yet but will be amended accordingly, and associates have the rights to buy rings as usual but must comply, come back with a proposed change to then send out to associates and spell out exactly why we are doing it.

Need to send out to all 11 associates that we are looking to change the by-laws

Jean has a concern about the loss of numbers at shows, and don't want to upset people the force them to join BSNSW when it is working at the moment

Question: How are we doing memberships this year, answer: Prefer direct transfer

ITEM 6: Reports:

Treasurer (Motion to accept the report)

See attached forms

Unallocated rings- Penrith valley was in credit, so there was a mix up,

The show is going to be issued against rehiring, no need to pay the invoice

$40 taken out of Editor (membership)

Advertising – last magazine only had minimal advertising.

Membership that was paid via Macarthur was refunded as discussed at the previous meeting.

President

Kind remarks received but many, and he has tried to respond to emails and mass on to correct persons.

Need to purchase 3 shirts, Myles x 1, Pam x 2

ITEM 7: General Business:

Jim

Directed to Rita do you have warrens machine, Rita stated it was returned on the day of the show, Terese brought it back to Warren, Rita Is not sure where it is at the moment

Penrith Valley has an auction the day before the BRASEA, the Penrith Valley Auction cannot be changed as there are no other available dates, Stuart believes it will benefit both clubs as people will go to both.

Clarification of the point score.

Justin

Asked for an outline of the roll to make sure he is following the correct way, Ian supplied Printing and postage change looking into the option of printing at his workplace to minimise cost

Work out a way to send a smaller file (5mb)

Bi-Monthly stick to current dates

Jean

Daniel Childs has asked Ken York to be present at the SCC o show how to use the program and to solve the enquiries about the 1st-6th place

Show Manager program? It is currently loaded on the club laptop.

Myles

previously spoke about the silent auction to have at the SCC, this does not require a large number of people to run and to raise money, a suggestion by Jean was 2 ways to run the auction barrel and list.

Matt Holyoak and Rita Corbett have volunteered on the day.

Lacewings

From an article by Colin Putt, courtesy 'The Budgerigar' (UK)

A brief overview

Basically, the Lacewing is found in two body colours: yellow (green series) and white (blue series) with red eyes but all markings as in a Normal being cinnamon brown, including the spots. The variety is sex-linked, the same as Opalines, Inos and Cinnamons, and can therefore be developed more easily than a recessive variety.

National Winning Lacewing 2018 (K & D Mitchell (NSW)
Credit Rod Turnbull (Photographer).

Starting in Lacewings

Since a hen bird cannot be split for Lacewing, you will need to get a start by obtaining a cock carrying the Lacewing factor either in visual or split form and if possible, two Lacewing hens. I would pair the cock to one of the Lacewing hens, aiming for a progeny of 50% visual Lacewing, 25% Normal split Lacewing cocks, 25% non-Lacewing hens ratio. The visuals would be cocks and hens.

And the other original hen? I would pair her to the best normal cock that I have, thereby breeding better youngsters and all the cocks would be split Lacewing. These splits would be mated to visual hens from the first pairing. Within three seasons there would have developed a growing family of Lacewings and splits. The best of the non-Lacewing hens can even be very useful if used with a visual cock.

You can see that one does not need to get a lot of Lacewings initially to enjoy the challenge of a new variety. Patience and commonsense will pay off. Should you be offered just one Lacewing cock don't reject it if you have no visuals. I well remember letting a fancier have such a bird although I couldn't supply a visual hen to go with it, and hey presto! - three visual hens in a nest of four when just one would have been a bonus! So don't rule out splits.

Forms of Lacewings

The Lacewing can be bred of course in many forms such as Opalines, Spangles and Pieds, however in my experience over many years I prefer normal Lacewings, with only Opalines second. It is the depth of markings which really enhances the beauty of this pastel variety.

There are three colours in the yellow variety, or to be more accurate, three shades - light, medium and dark - corresponding to light, dark and olive green. The olive green shade gives the richest colour, nearing mustard. Suffusion in yellows can be very noticeable in the light green shade, so, prudent use only! In the case of white Lacewings the depth of blue is nearly irrelevant, except that the use of blue does cause create suffusion, a factor found in Inos.

My experience is that the grey variety used with white Lacewings reduces the suffusion fault and that grey greens when used over two or three generations with yellows tends to dull the body colour. With that knowledge, I would like to only use excellent olives and dark grey normals with Lacewings, but breeding or indeed purchasing such coloured normals presents a challenge in itself.

Never use Inos, especially cock birds, with Lacewings as the result causes considerable problems when nests of red eyed youngsters, particularly hens, appear. Use of dilutes reduces the markings on Lacewings, sometimes to the point where such birds can look like Lutino's. Intensity of markings in Lacewings is so important in this variety, as is the absence of suffusion.

Lacewings

Size or Colour

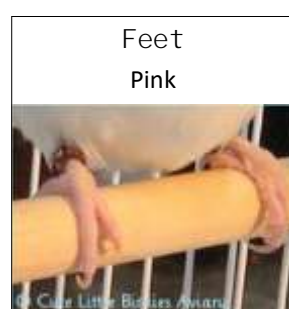

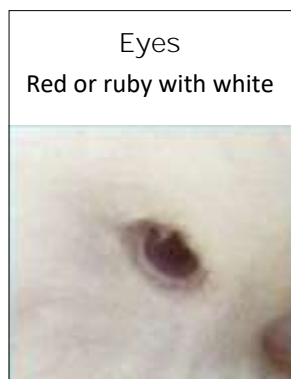

Should a fancier wish to go in for this variety, type, colour and size all have to be of paramount concern. The vast majority of Lacewings are of the 'yellow' type, so one must maintain a concerted effort to increase size. What must not happen in the quest for size is the sacrifice of colour. As a Lacewing breeder your thoughts have to be three seasons ahead if progress on type, colour and size together is to be made. Whenever non-Lacewings are used they should ideally be massive and heavily marked birds, preferably Normals, and paired to the best Lacewings you have or can get. I am not against breeding Lacewing x Lacewing, providing birds of quality are used, but I find the second generation are better paired to splits or non-Lacewings, basically to improve size. I accept that initially one's enthusiasm demands that many Lacewings be bred, but the numbers game does not usually improve the variety. If you already have a main stud which includes good normals, Lacewings can be run alongside beneficially and will certainly add beauty and interest to any aviary as well as being of help to your club and the budgerigar fancy generally in lifting this beautiful bird from its present "lesser variety" status. Being sex-linked, the breeding expectations in theory are predictable.

St. George Branch held its 60th Annual Show on Sunday, 17th February at the Bexley School of Arts Hall. 29 Exhibitors travelled from the Mid North Coast, Metropolitan Sydney, Illawarra District, South Western Area and Hills Branch. Craig Buckingham, Garry Gazzard and Barry Wise adjudicated with 299 Budgerigars and we had some very good quality birds on show.

We thank our exhibitors and judges for their attendance.
We appreciated Barry and Terese Ryan for setting up their fully stocked “Trade Table” which was an opportunity for our exhibitors and visitors to purchase their needs.
Greg Gregoriou won Grand Champion with a lovely Grey Normal Hen and our Judges were very impressed with this bird.

We were pleased with our wonderful Trophy Table with great awards made possible by our Members and our generous Sponsors - Golden Cob, Birdsville, Vetafarm, Pet Food and Wire Sales

PLEASE NOTE: APRIL MEETING - Due to the fact that the third Friday in April is the 19th which is Good Friday, the Committee has decided to move the meeting one week early to the second Friday, which is 12th April.

CANBERRA BRANCH SHOW REPORT

It was good to see 350 birds entered in our show and we were pleased to see so many exhibitors on the day. It has been many years since I can remember that sort of number. There were a lot of very good quality birds on display with entries near class. Our Judges, Jean, Andre and Jim had a very busy time and did an excellent job.

Tony Butt won Grand Champion, Champion Young went to Ewing Cooke, Champion Intermediate to Luke Dodge and Champion Novice to Steve Thomas.

James Matthews was our Auctioneer for the small auction held on the day and it went very well. We would like to thank our vendors for their birds. Our Raffle was also drawn and we would like to thank those that purchased tickets and also those who returned the books to us.

As always, I would also like to thank everyone who assisted with the setup, the running of the show, and the cleaning up after the show. It was a very busy show and your efforts were much appreciated. A big thankyou to our major sponsors including the branch members who provided sponsorship, and also to those who made donations to our club.
